7 HOUSES BURNED; 100 DRIVEN OUT BY BROOKLYN BLAZE

Firemen Make Many Rescues From Tenements Without Front Escapes.

Seven frame buildings were wrecked and more than 100 persons driven to the street in their nightclothes early today when fire swept through almost an entire city block on Third Avenue, Brooklyn.

Experiment in releasing some of the inmates. At a house on Third Avenue, 11th and 12th streets, the fire broke out from the windows of the apartment of John Yasulinski on the top floor of the three-story frame tenement at No. 714 1/2 Third Avenue.

By the time the apparatus arrived the flames had spread through the building and communicated to No. 714 also filled with sleeping tenants. Driven by the wind, the flames swept into the top floor of No. 711, then jumped rapidly down the street to Nos. 709, 707, 705 and 703, all three-story frame tenements.

A second alarm brought Deputy Chief Langford. Because of the lack of fire escapes on the front of the burned buildings, the firemen had to divide their efforts between saving the tenants and keeping the fire from the four other frame tenement buildings on the street.

PRIESTS RISK LIFE TO SAVE SACRED VESSELS AT FIRE

Father Kubec of St. Casimir's, Brooklyn, and Two Firemen Hurt by Falls.

Two priests risked their lives early today to save the sacrament, the relics and the sacred vessels from the altar of St. Casimir's Roman Catholic Church at No. 41 Greene Avenue, Brooklyn, when flames were sweeping through the structure from cellar to roof.

Later one of them, the Rev. Gervase Kubec, pastor, fell through a vault light in the church floor and crashed to the basement, twenty feet below, suffering severe cuts and bruises. In the darkness fireman Benjamin Fay of Hook and Ladder No. 102 walked into the same opening and fireman Fred Brosman of Hook and Ladder No. 155 fell through a vault light in the front of the building.

The noise of the engines awakened the Rev. Father Kubec in the parish house at No. 225 Adelphi Street, around the corner from the church. The priest immediately ran to the church and tried to enter, but was driven back by the flames. The Rev. Father Hamilton, fire department chaplain, then directed two firemen, who cut down a door, and the two priests entered the burning interior, bringing out the sacred articles from the altar.

LIKE BOLT FROM HEAVEN'S BLUE

A happy discovery of Cincinnati chemist interests women here

Your high heels have put corns on your toes and calluses on your feet, but why care now?

A genius in Cincinnati discovered a magic ether compound and named it freezone. A quarter ounce of this freezone can now be had at any drug store for a few cents. Apply a few drops on your tender, aching corns or callus. Instantly the soreness disappears and shortly you will find the corn or callus so shriveled and loose that you lift it off with your fingers.

Just think! You get rid of a hard corn, soft corn or a corn between the toes, as well as hardened callus, for a few cents and without suffering one particle, without the slightest irritation of the surrounding skin. Just a touch of this marvelous freezone on a sore, troublesome corn gives instant relief.—Adv.

PITTSBURGH MILLS GET FUEL

Industries, Crippled by Fuel, Start on Full Time Next Week.

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 14.—Industries of the Pittsburgh district, crippled since the start of the year owing to the fuel famine, will resume operations within a few days, according to prominent steel men here, who point out that clearing of the weather situation with the resumption of coal and coke shipments will permit the mills to open on full time early next week.

The greater percentage of the industries in question hold Government work contracts.
